Dear Prime Minister,

In view of recent developments in Europe, it is ever more important that leaders reassure the world that Europe has a promising future, whatever the outcome of Brexit.

I particularly appreciate your presence in Davos and your active engagement in the World Economic Forum Annual Meeting programme. This shows that Europe is very well represented and that it has a strong and powerful voice in the world.

For this reason, I have created a major new plenary session on A New Impetus for Europe with key political leaders from Europe taking place on Thursday 24 January. As such, I would like to invite you to join this discussion as a panellist.

The Forum team will be in touch with your office with more details. You will find attached the latest list of political and media leaders who will participate in the discussions in Davos. The chief executive officers of the top 1,000 global companies will also be part of the deliberations.

I wish you a safe trip and look forward to seeing you in Davos.

Kind regards,

handtekening
